

Hello ,

September was a busy month on our "borderless motivational space". Ifesinachi Nwayanwu asked us "why waste it?" in his feature article. This award winning self-taught visual artist, playwright, poet, philosopher, environmental activist and Nigerian cultural Ambassador, explained how using waste to create conversational and inspiring art pieces is the way forward.

Dr Amaka Azie, was on hand to inspire us with her case of "multiple talents and the melodies of love". In it, she told how we need to pursue our dreams and not the dream of others as well as the fact that it is never too late to pursue ones dreams in life. Along came the independence celebration of the most populous black nation in the world - Nigeria on October 1st and on hand to help the world and Nigerians reflect on "Nigeria's Destiny Call" was

When Eric Thomas came to London - Urban Life 2016 chronicled the events at the recent visit of one of the world's most inspirational speakers to London. It was epic to have a hall filled with over 2000 persons. Eric Thomas explained how the problem with most of us is that we are all trying to climb a mountain most of the time since we suffer a lack of proper insight as to who we truly are and what strength lies within. He emphasized how we need to change our mindset and start speaking to the mountain to move instead.

The Regional Entrepreneurs Empowerment Business Awards known as R.E.E.B.A made history on the 24th September 2016 on board the luxurious Dixie Queen down the River Thames. Oasis Radio and Loretta Reveals were present at this very inspiring event.

The event had a grand opening and was hosted by Dr. Dickson Aleroh and Cathy Ballard, both mentors and change making Entrepreneurs in their fields. The Deputy Mayor of Southwark Councilor Charlie Smith, who presented the adult category awards, gave a brief speech about not giving up on your dreams and showed the guests round on board his beloved Southwark landmark on the River Thames. The Young Mayor of Lewisham, Emmanuel Olaniyan, presented awards to the youth category winners, encouraging the younger generation that dreams are possible. Ms Ché Ann and her team of talented ambassadors Martin Stevens and Anaya Kamara have done well this year. They persist at actualizing their continued vision of recognizing those individuals who step out of their comfort zone to do what they love most, yet they continue impacting others and making a difference while doing it.

October on LR Motivational space is on full swing. What does lipstick laptops and a Professor have in common? You sure need to stick with us this month if you wish to find out. Our previously adverted second e-book series goes live at the beginning of next month so make it a date.

Once again, remember to always surround your self with the right influence - positive influence. Actively seek out those things and people who add value and a positive meaning to your life. Now, do not stop at receiving - you also, seek to add value to another person's life. That way, we build our web of support, which is one sure thing that humanity requires, most in todays world. If you doubt this, watch the ants.
